Christine V

The beautiful Highlander of the Filmore Empire. Her appearance as she personally leads the charge in battle exudes a magnificent, if somewhat melancholy sensation. Thrown into battle almost as a sacrifice, she is indeed a tragic heroine.

FATIMA Chandanna

The strongest Fatima of Filmore, inherited from Sword Sage Ena. Machi is her sister. Even though she has a befuddled look around her and her abilities are top-notch.

FATIMA Machi

A Ballanche Fatima who has served the V family for 2 generations. She does everything in her power to help Christine, who was thrown into the battlefield for crimes committed in her youth.

Erniuth Dai Gu Fillmore V

Protagonist of the 6th story arc (44 minutes). The 238th King of the Filmore Empire. What are the thoughts and feelings of this overly young sovereign as he carries out his Royal duties? Nobody knows. And he is the king of the most powerful military nation, no less. Clearly, he understands that those who sit at the top are really just puppets; they're played with around the most.

◆ Naias Brunhilde

Originally a member of Filmore's Knue Syltiss White Corps; but when the Diver Wars break out, she inexplicably leads the strongest wildcard Knight Corps of this volume to battle.

◆ Miyaza Hekusei

General Secretary of Filmore

Proud and brusque, he is a dangerous figure who wants to establish the power of his new faction in the Monarchy-dominated Empire. He is plotting to do away with Christine, who has a criminal record.

◆ MH V Siren Prominence

The personal MH of Filmore Emperor Dai Gu, it is the sister unit to Neptune. Dai Gu inherited it along with Chandanna from his Grandmother, Ena.

◆ MH V Siren Neptune

A symbol of the Empire that Lader bestows upon Christine. A "naked MH", it has had large sections of its armour removed to reduce its weight.

◆ MH Siren

The Filmore Empire's mainstay MH, it is a superlative MH that has been heralded as one of the Galaxy's "Big Three".

FATIMA Auxo

Partner of Sword Saint Kalen. She only has one wish, but will it ever be realized?

Hyper Chevalier Douglas Kaien

Holds the title of "Sword Saint" as the Galaxy's strongest Knight, there is probably also no character as sleazy as he is. It's better not to hold any "expectations" for this character.

Magdall Atoll

Kalen's daughter. The most powerful Diver Hathuha has had since its creation, she inherited her beautiful golden hair from her mother Jabo.

◆ Depre Atoll

Kalen's son, and a Knight. He inherited his mother's MH, the Flame Empress, and is Hathuha's representative in the Diver Wars.

◆ Mugumika Atoll

The Witch of Atoll, and Collet's grand-daughter. With Kaien, she staunchly resists Bosjathfort of Buchtgma's invasion. She is the last Witch of Hathuha and Atoll.

◆ MH Atoll

Hathuha's mainstay MH, it has been heralded as one of the "Big Three" for its powerful capabilities. With over 10 different armour configuration models, it is the MH of Swans division.

◆ Yang-Gui

The Golden Dragon's nymph. It has appeared to fulfill the terms of the pact paid in blood by Mugumika

◆ Meeth Silver Ballanche

An orphaned girl whom Kaien adopts in Volume 4, she has grown up to continue the name of Ballanche. She is also been played around at the whim of the gods.

◆ Michael Joy Gira

Burdened with the position of Head Commander of Hathuha's armed forces, this Knight is also leader of the SWANS division of Hathuha's strongest Knight Corps. In the battle for the Imperial Palace, even this commander must mount his MH and go to the battlefield.

◆ Rotoss Balounga

Although he is the leader of the AP Security Police Squad, which is the section of Hathuha's Knight Corps that specializes in shady and dirty work, he has received tremendous support from Magdall, and also carries the burden of the Princess and Prince's trust.

FATIMA Est

When synchronized with the MH "Black Knight" Vatshu, this unique Fatima is one of the Galaxy's strongest. This time round, she shocks the Galaxy by becoming a symbol of terror for the invading armies of the Magic Buchtgma Empire.

◆ "Black Knight"

Decors Weissmal

A genius Knight whom Est called "Master", and thus assumed the title of "Black Knight". With his prodigious combat abilities, he is even able to take down multiple MHs on his own with little difficulty. A truly terrifying Knight.

◆ Dis Bosjathfort

Emperor of the Magic Buchtgma Empire, he claims to have inherited the bloodline of the Pure-blooded Super Empire Divers. By engaging in a one-sided declaration of war against Hathuha, he has broken the balance of power in the Galaxy.

◆ MH "Black Knight" Vatshu

A black MH designed by Rowmiran Xbin to complement Est. Its powerful strength and capabilities have earned it the moniker of "Black Knight". The ease with which it takes down the heavy-armour type Atolis without a scratch is otherworldly.

◆ MH Engage SR1

A super-MH representing the Colus Dynasty. A compact, immensely powerful MH once used by Sword Saint Harricon, its design would be later inherited by Clotho's Junchoon.

◆ Krackenbeal Mejojo

Wrestled the throne of the Mejojo Empire from the previous Emperor through sheer ability, and is currently invading Hathuha. A battle-hungry character.

◆ FATIMA Andromeda

Emperor Krackenbeal's partner. She is wearing a Plastics style L-size windbreaker suit, a rare sight.

◆ Arr Fortissimo Melody

A princess of the Royal Colus House of Melody, she became a wanderer after the House of Melody was deposed. She has since settled down at Hathuha, in accordance with Magdall's predictions.

◆ MH Flamberge Temple

A custom model of the Ashura Temple. Used by Emperor Krackenbeal, it is also known as the Kishin Kongo.

Hyper Chevalier de la Rose

Madora Moirai

A woman who inherited the cursed bloodline which the Super Empire Knights were most terrified of. In the past, she has slaughtered countless numbers solely for her own pleasure. Every word that this she says is a lie.

FATIMA Belcut

A Koop Fatima, she is Madora's partner. Since her debut, there has been no news of her, but she reappears in the Diver Wars.

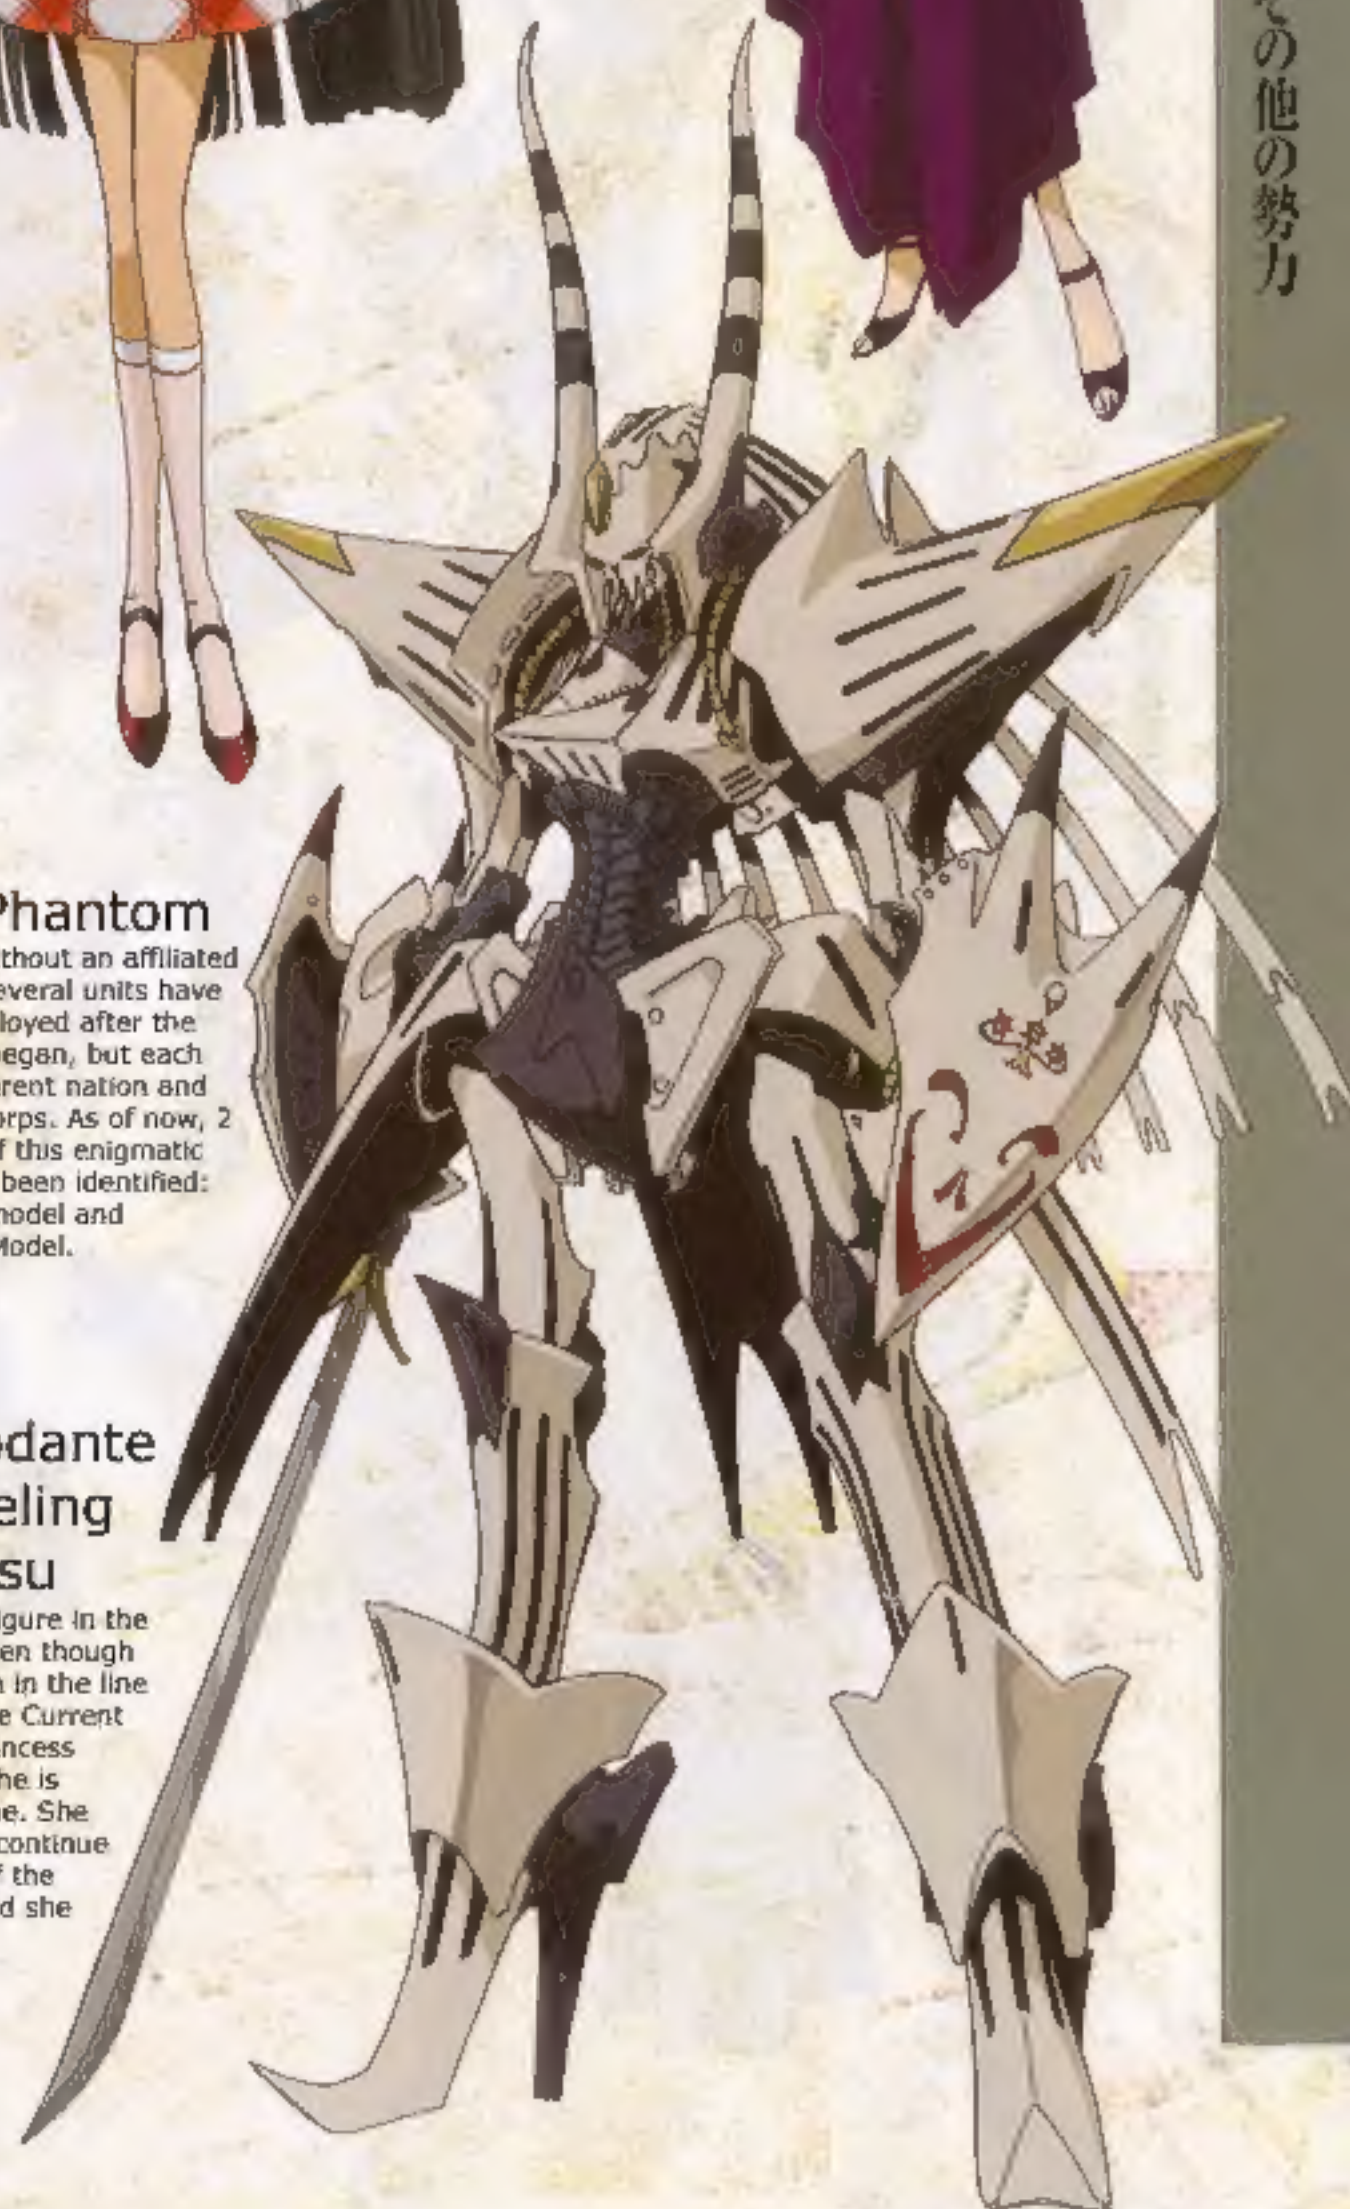

Natrium Funfuto

Former Witch of Hathuha. She lost all her abilities as a Witch and was abandoned by Hathuha, but has resumed the position thanks to the Golden Dragon. She is also Max's foster mother.

MH Phantom

An MH without an affiliated nation, several units have been deployed after the fighting began, but each by a different nation and Knight Corps. As of now, 2 models of this enigmatic MH have been identified: A Black model and a White Model.

Wascha Codante Mel Darjeeling Amaterasu

The most important figure in the Amaterasu Family. Even though she is publicly the 4th in the line of succession after the Current Emperor (Sopp...), Princess Lachesis and Aisha, she is actually the first in line. She is the only female to continue the direct bloodline of the Amaterasu Family, and she makes her debut in this volume.

TEAR!!

What is the matter?
You seem deep
in thought,
Star Queen of Farndom.

This sword,
one of the two Kaienken that were created by Kallen-sama
for the Joker
and Taika
universes

And about I,
who have destroyed so much in those two universes

When I
gaze
upon this
sword

As a mark of the lessons in life I was taught by Silvus The things that I have long discarded and have now
forgotten

Before I entered
the Taika universe, the only regret I left behind in the Joker star cluster

I remember
it now, Amaterasu Oomikami! *

How long are we going to wait for here?
Let's storm the
city now,
Brother Depre

XVIII

Your mother and Auxo are still trapped in the city!
Do you intend to let them perish
there?

No!
Max!
Don't you get it?

Auxo's already broken, and can't be used, even if she dies it doesn't matter—

Even if mother is there it's not a problem, besides—

Ah? Isn't that a bit strange? Even if the battle zone is still populated, we can still fight

The only real mother you have in this world! That is something that I and Magda.I doesn't have anymore!

Idiot! Max, you idiot! You uncomprehending fool! Mother Meeth-sama is

At the Central-North wall is Naras sama's Phantom and the Holy Dynasty Knight Corps. An Sister Est has arrived, and His Excellency Gra too!

All knight corps will begin the battle to liberate Hathuhunt at the same time that Prince Depe begins his assault on Buchtama city Build! What's our combat status?

ゴゴゴゴゴゴ

おひひ

Oh no if Max isn't brought under control, at this rate

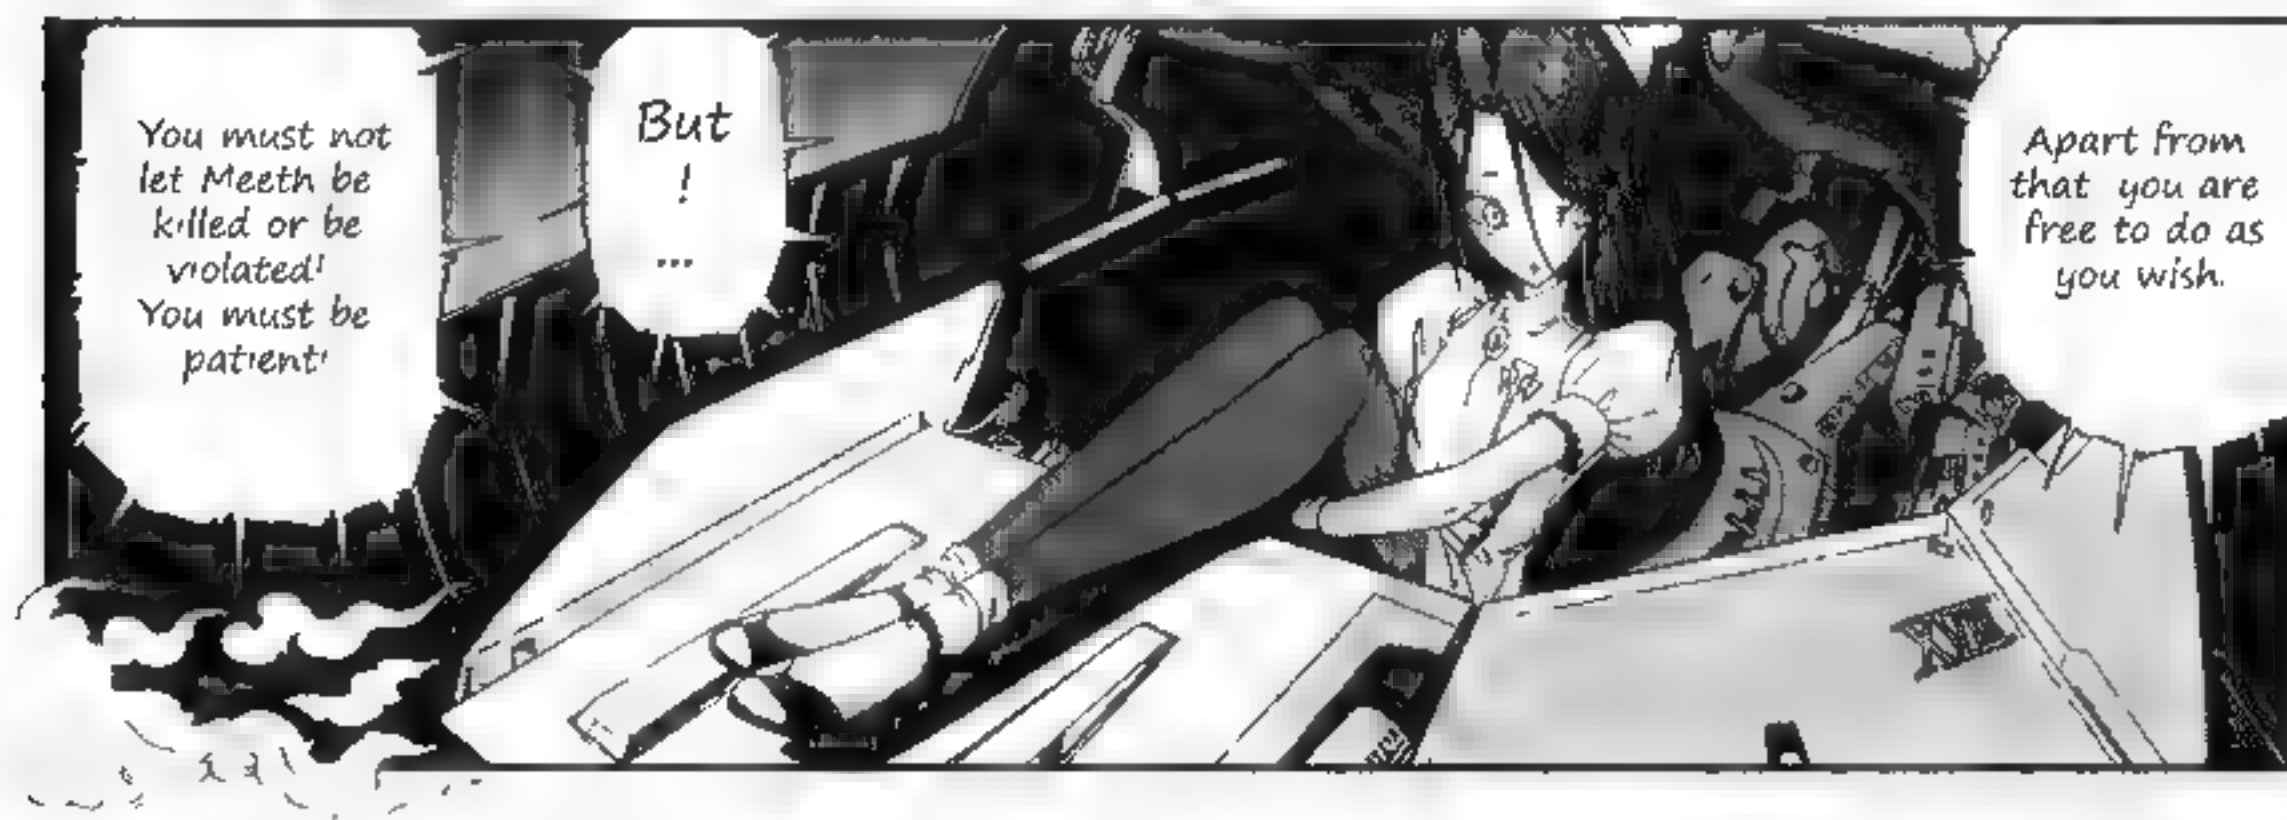

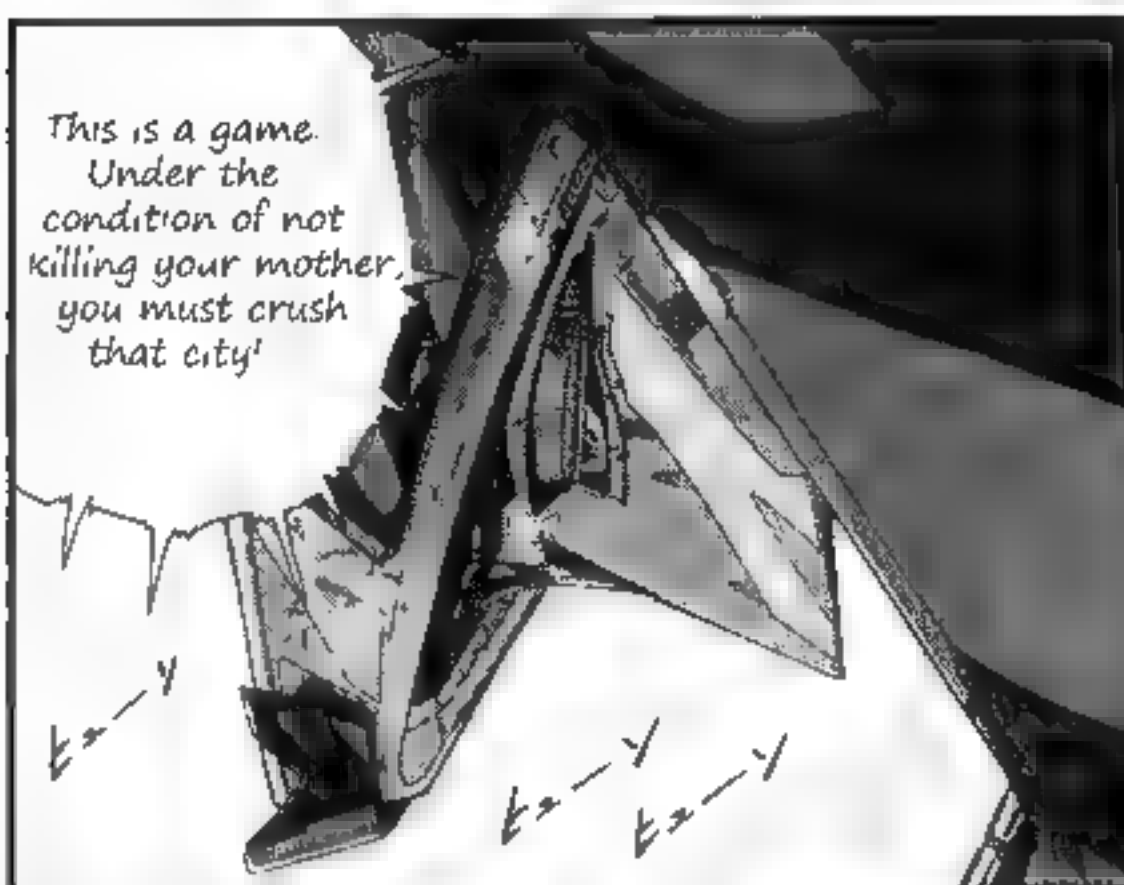

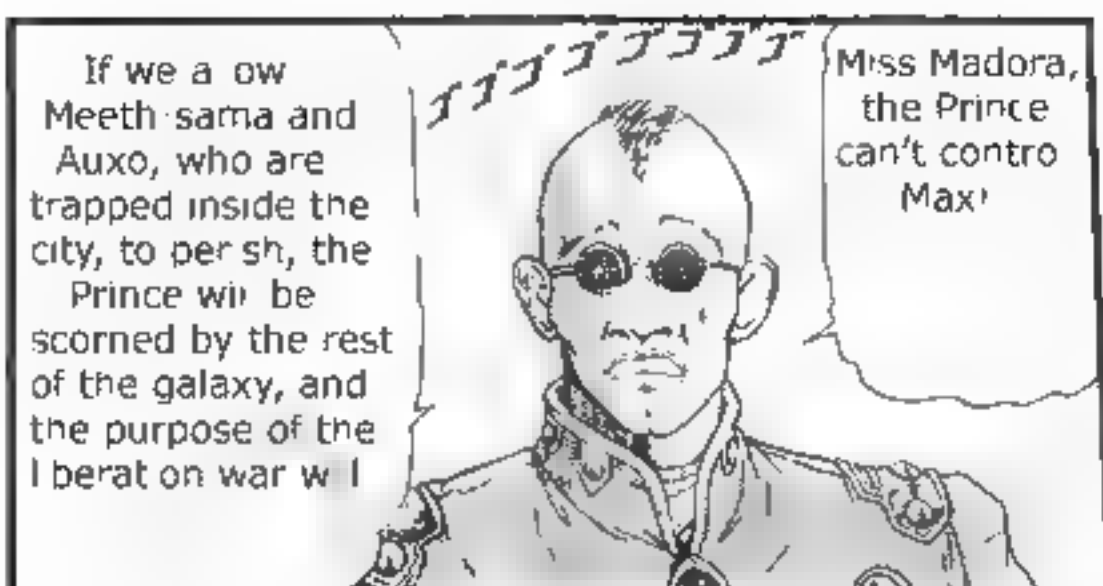

South wall -

Arr Sama Princess Sayley and Meister Oubu - The 3 Storm Princesses - and the Disturbs division are awaiting orders!

And at East wall Kubalkan's Pope Reyback and Miss Suzz's Puppeteers are assisting Skins division!

West wall of Hathuhunt - the Mirage Corps led by Prince Ikaruga and Princess Tightnaben are in formation!

Sword

Ooh

This scene has slightly overshot
the mark,
perhaps another 45 years earlier

Indeed,
that is true,
Sei-Ou-sama

You wish to resolve this regret? Or to use our powers to meddle in the realm of humans?

Even the shadow
of a speck of
interference should not occur That is what I and Lachesis hope for

That
degree

Amaterasu Oomikami,
what will happen to the Joker
universe
that you created?

To show that this story is still mythology

This is a gift that I and Lachesis
bequeath
to you

Fu
fu

To let the readers of Newtype
understand

That way, the
'me' and
'Lachesis' of
that world
should not be able to detect
that this is my power

This
Fancy
Miracle
is 44
minutes
long

Time

However,
Max, you
are also to be bound,
by what is known in
that world
as

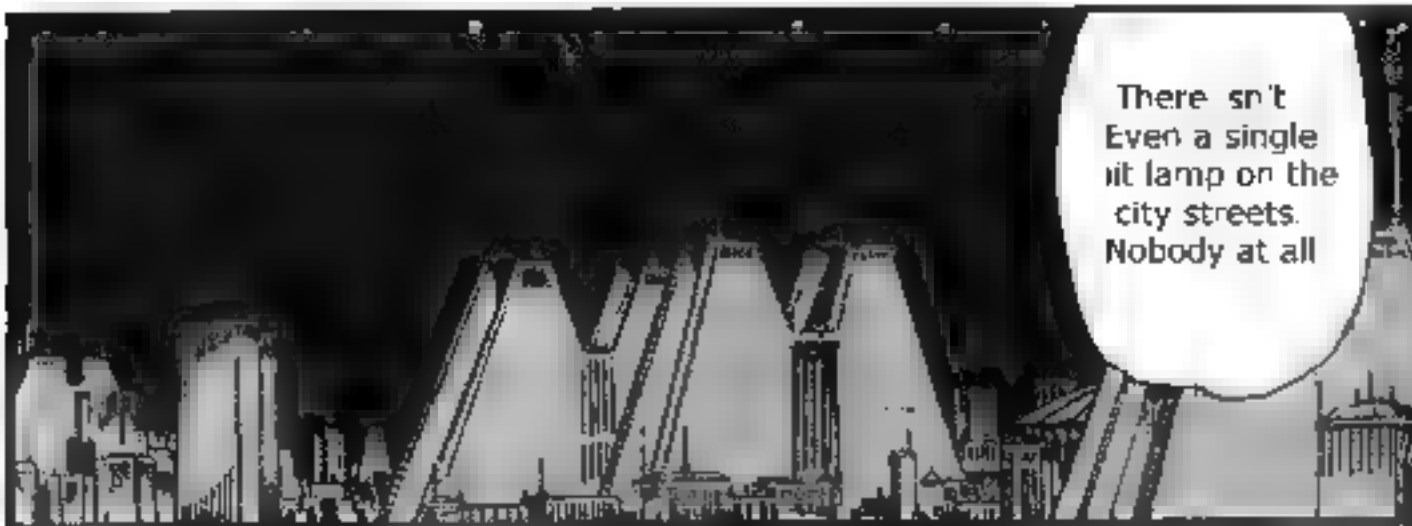

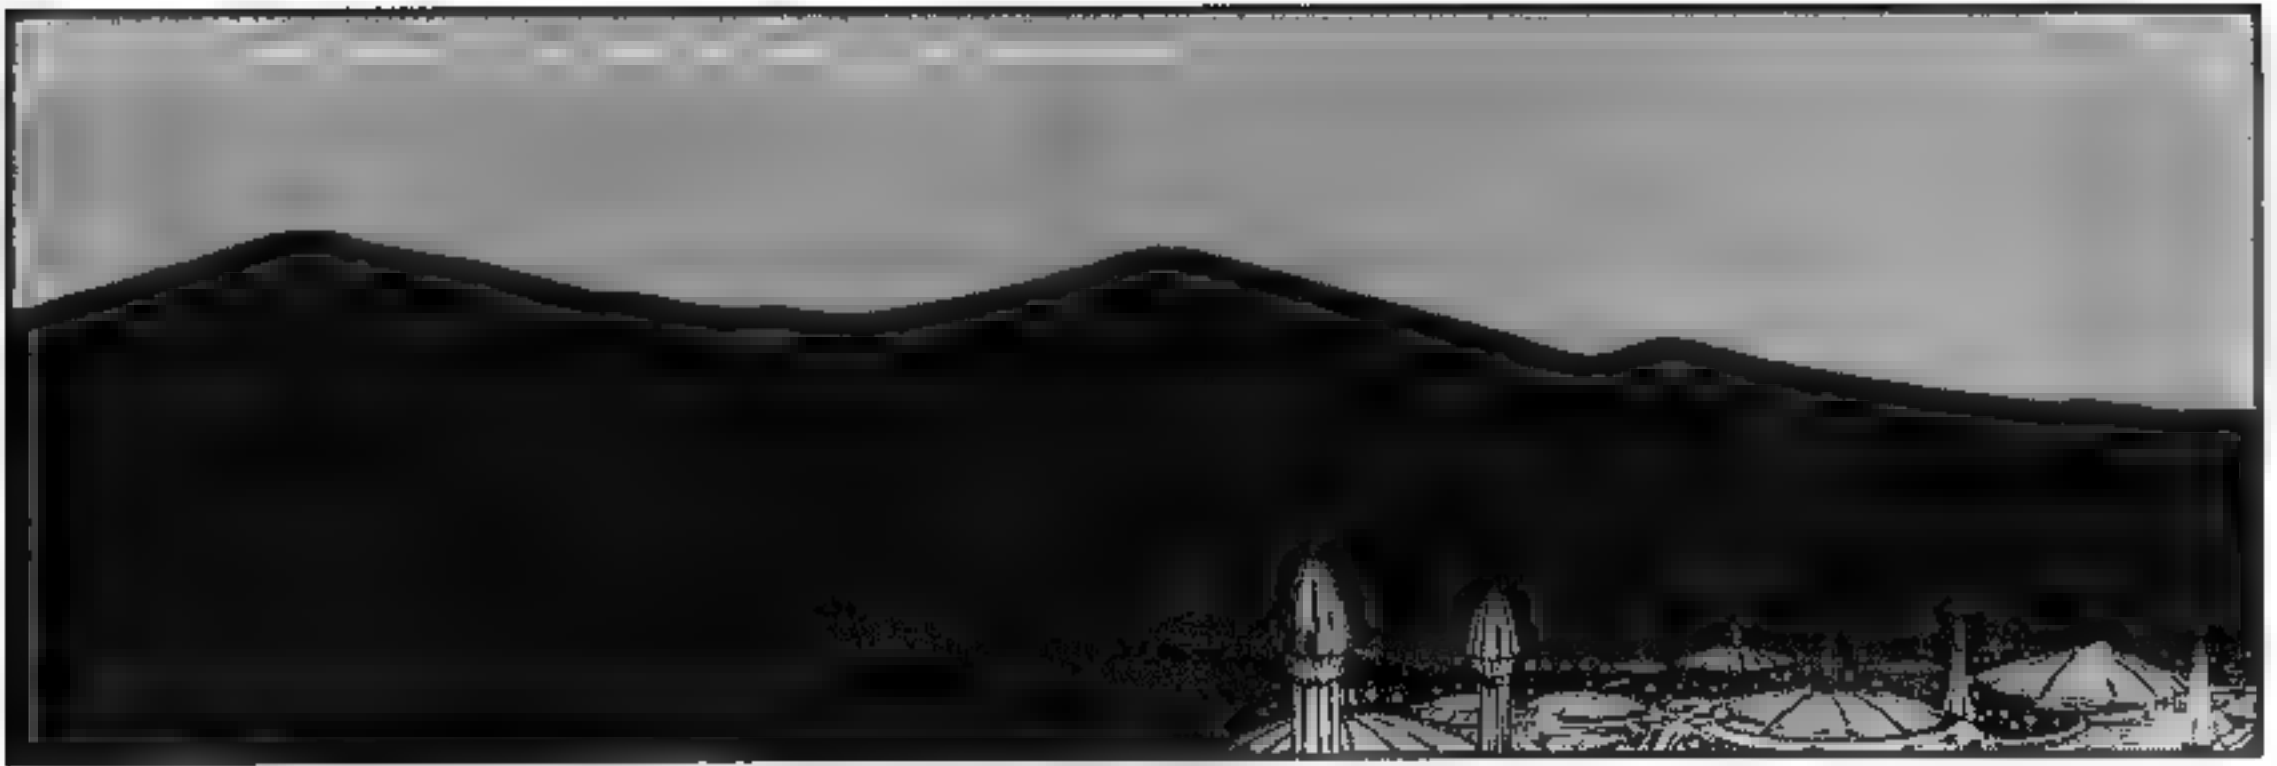

A miracle
lasting 44
minutes

That will be enough.

And so to those that my immature self
left behind in
that world
my mother,
and those who were mothers
to me

There sn't Even a single lit lamp on the city streets.
Nobody at all

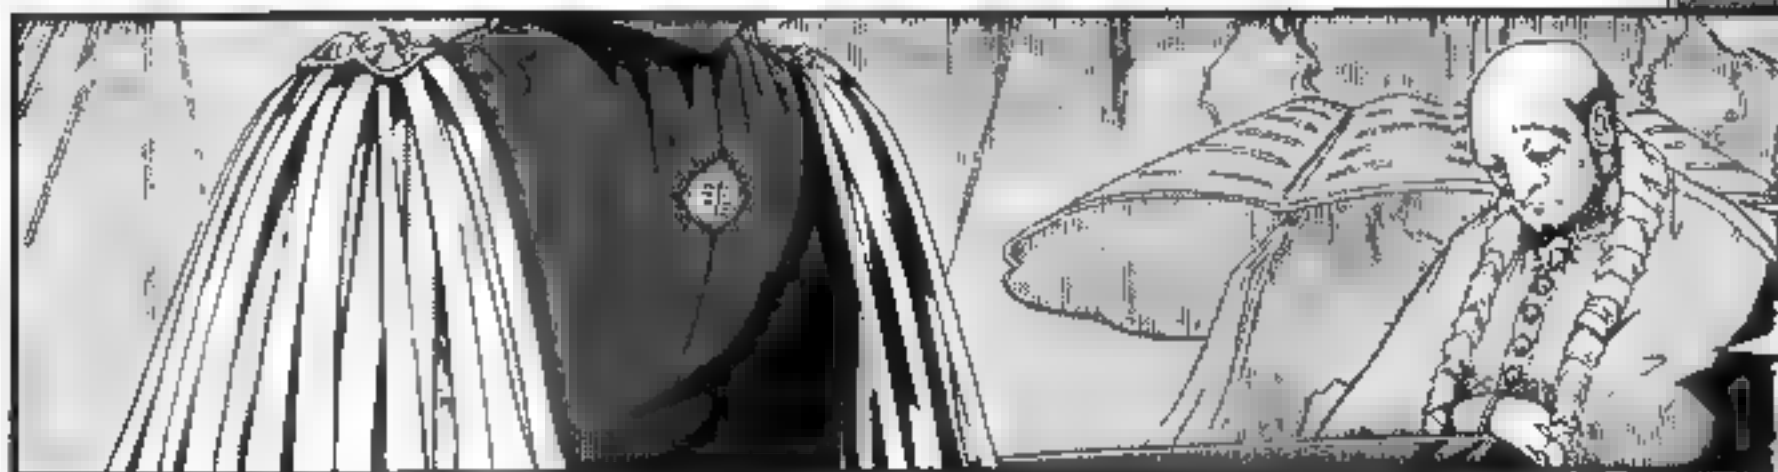

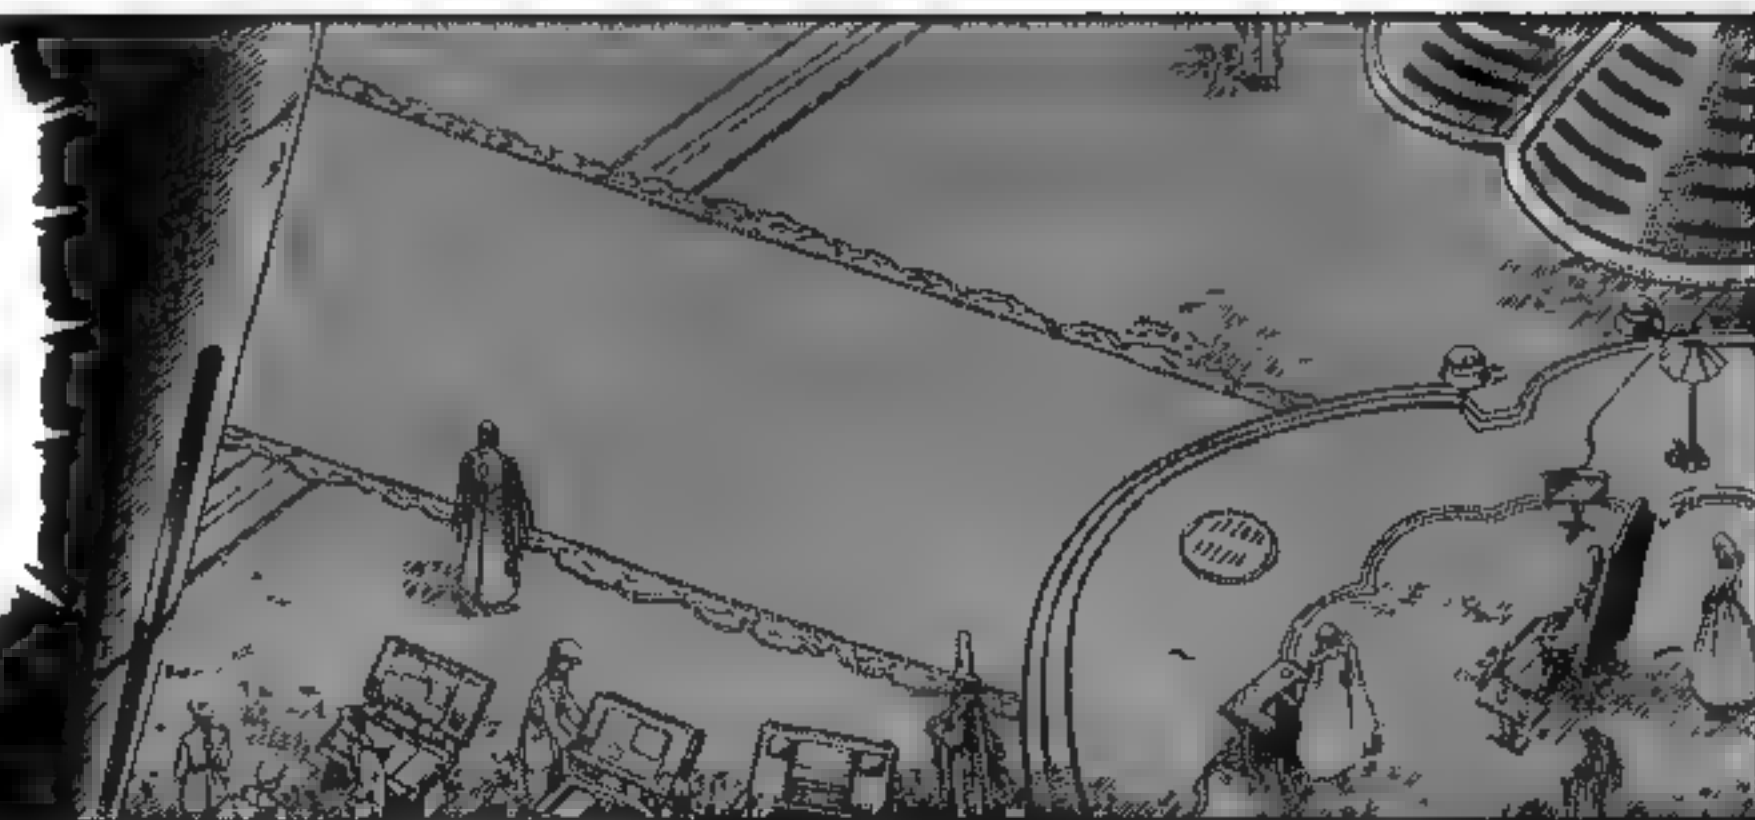

Kikiki
This is a broadcast over Hathuha
airspace, 23 hours
after the Emperor of Buchtgma His Highness Dis Bosjathfort
- declared war on the United Hathuha Republic
Kikiki

If Jabo
were to see this,
she'd be shocked

At daybreak tomorrow, the Buchtgma army will land MHS from satellite orbit onto the Imperial Capital Hathuhunt and occupy it!

Presently at the Imperial Capital Hathuhunt, the city's residents, noncombatants and Congress members have all evacuated – apart from the Imperial Palace, not a single light can be seen in the gigantic Capital.

Remaining at the Imperial Capital are Public King Collet, Her Imperial Highness the Witch of Atoil and Atoil Holy Empress Mugum ka Atoil and her attendants and officials.

Outside the Imperial Palace, the two strongest divisions of the AP knights the Swans and Skins divisions are assembling along its perimeters.

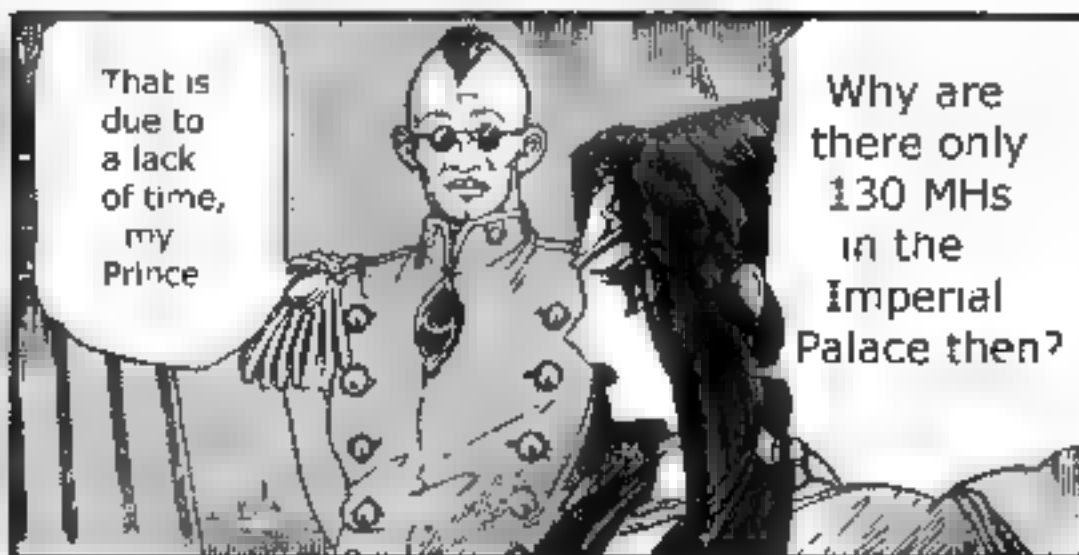

Not only has he stabilized the country, he has also inflamed many other nations

In the 40 years since Bosjathfort usurped Seabe,...

That is due to a lack of time, my Prince

Why are there only 130 MHS in the Imperial Palace then?

They were transported solely for the purpose of teleporting MHS here

The dozens of warships orbiting overhead are probably carrying several hundred Ezlazer engines

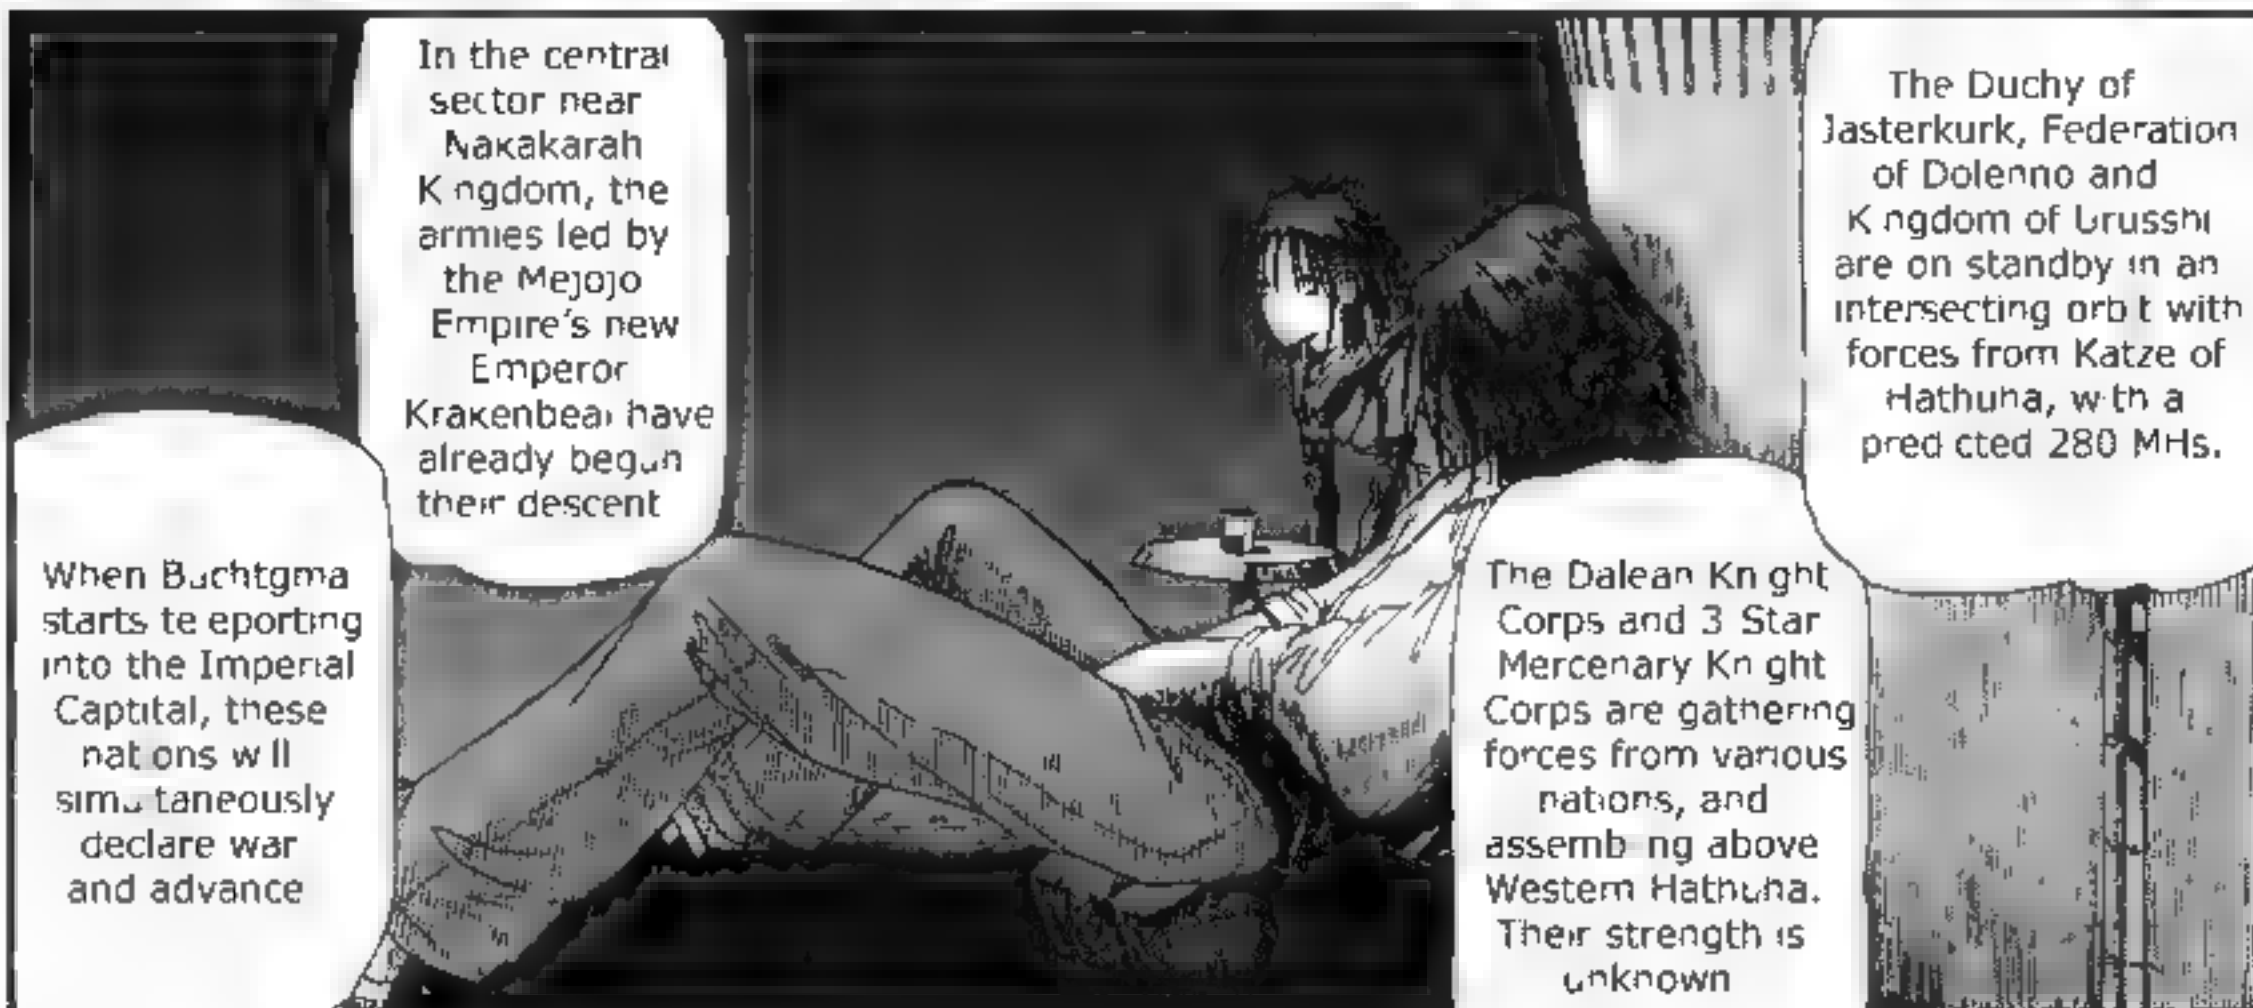

Grover

Hard, reconfirm our current military status.

That is why the Atols cannot assemble at the Imperial Palace now

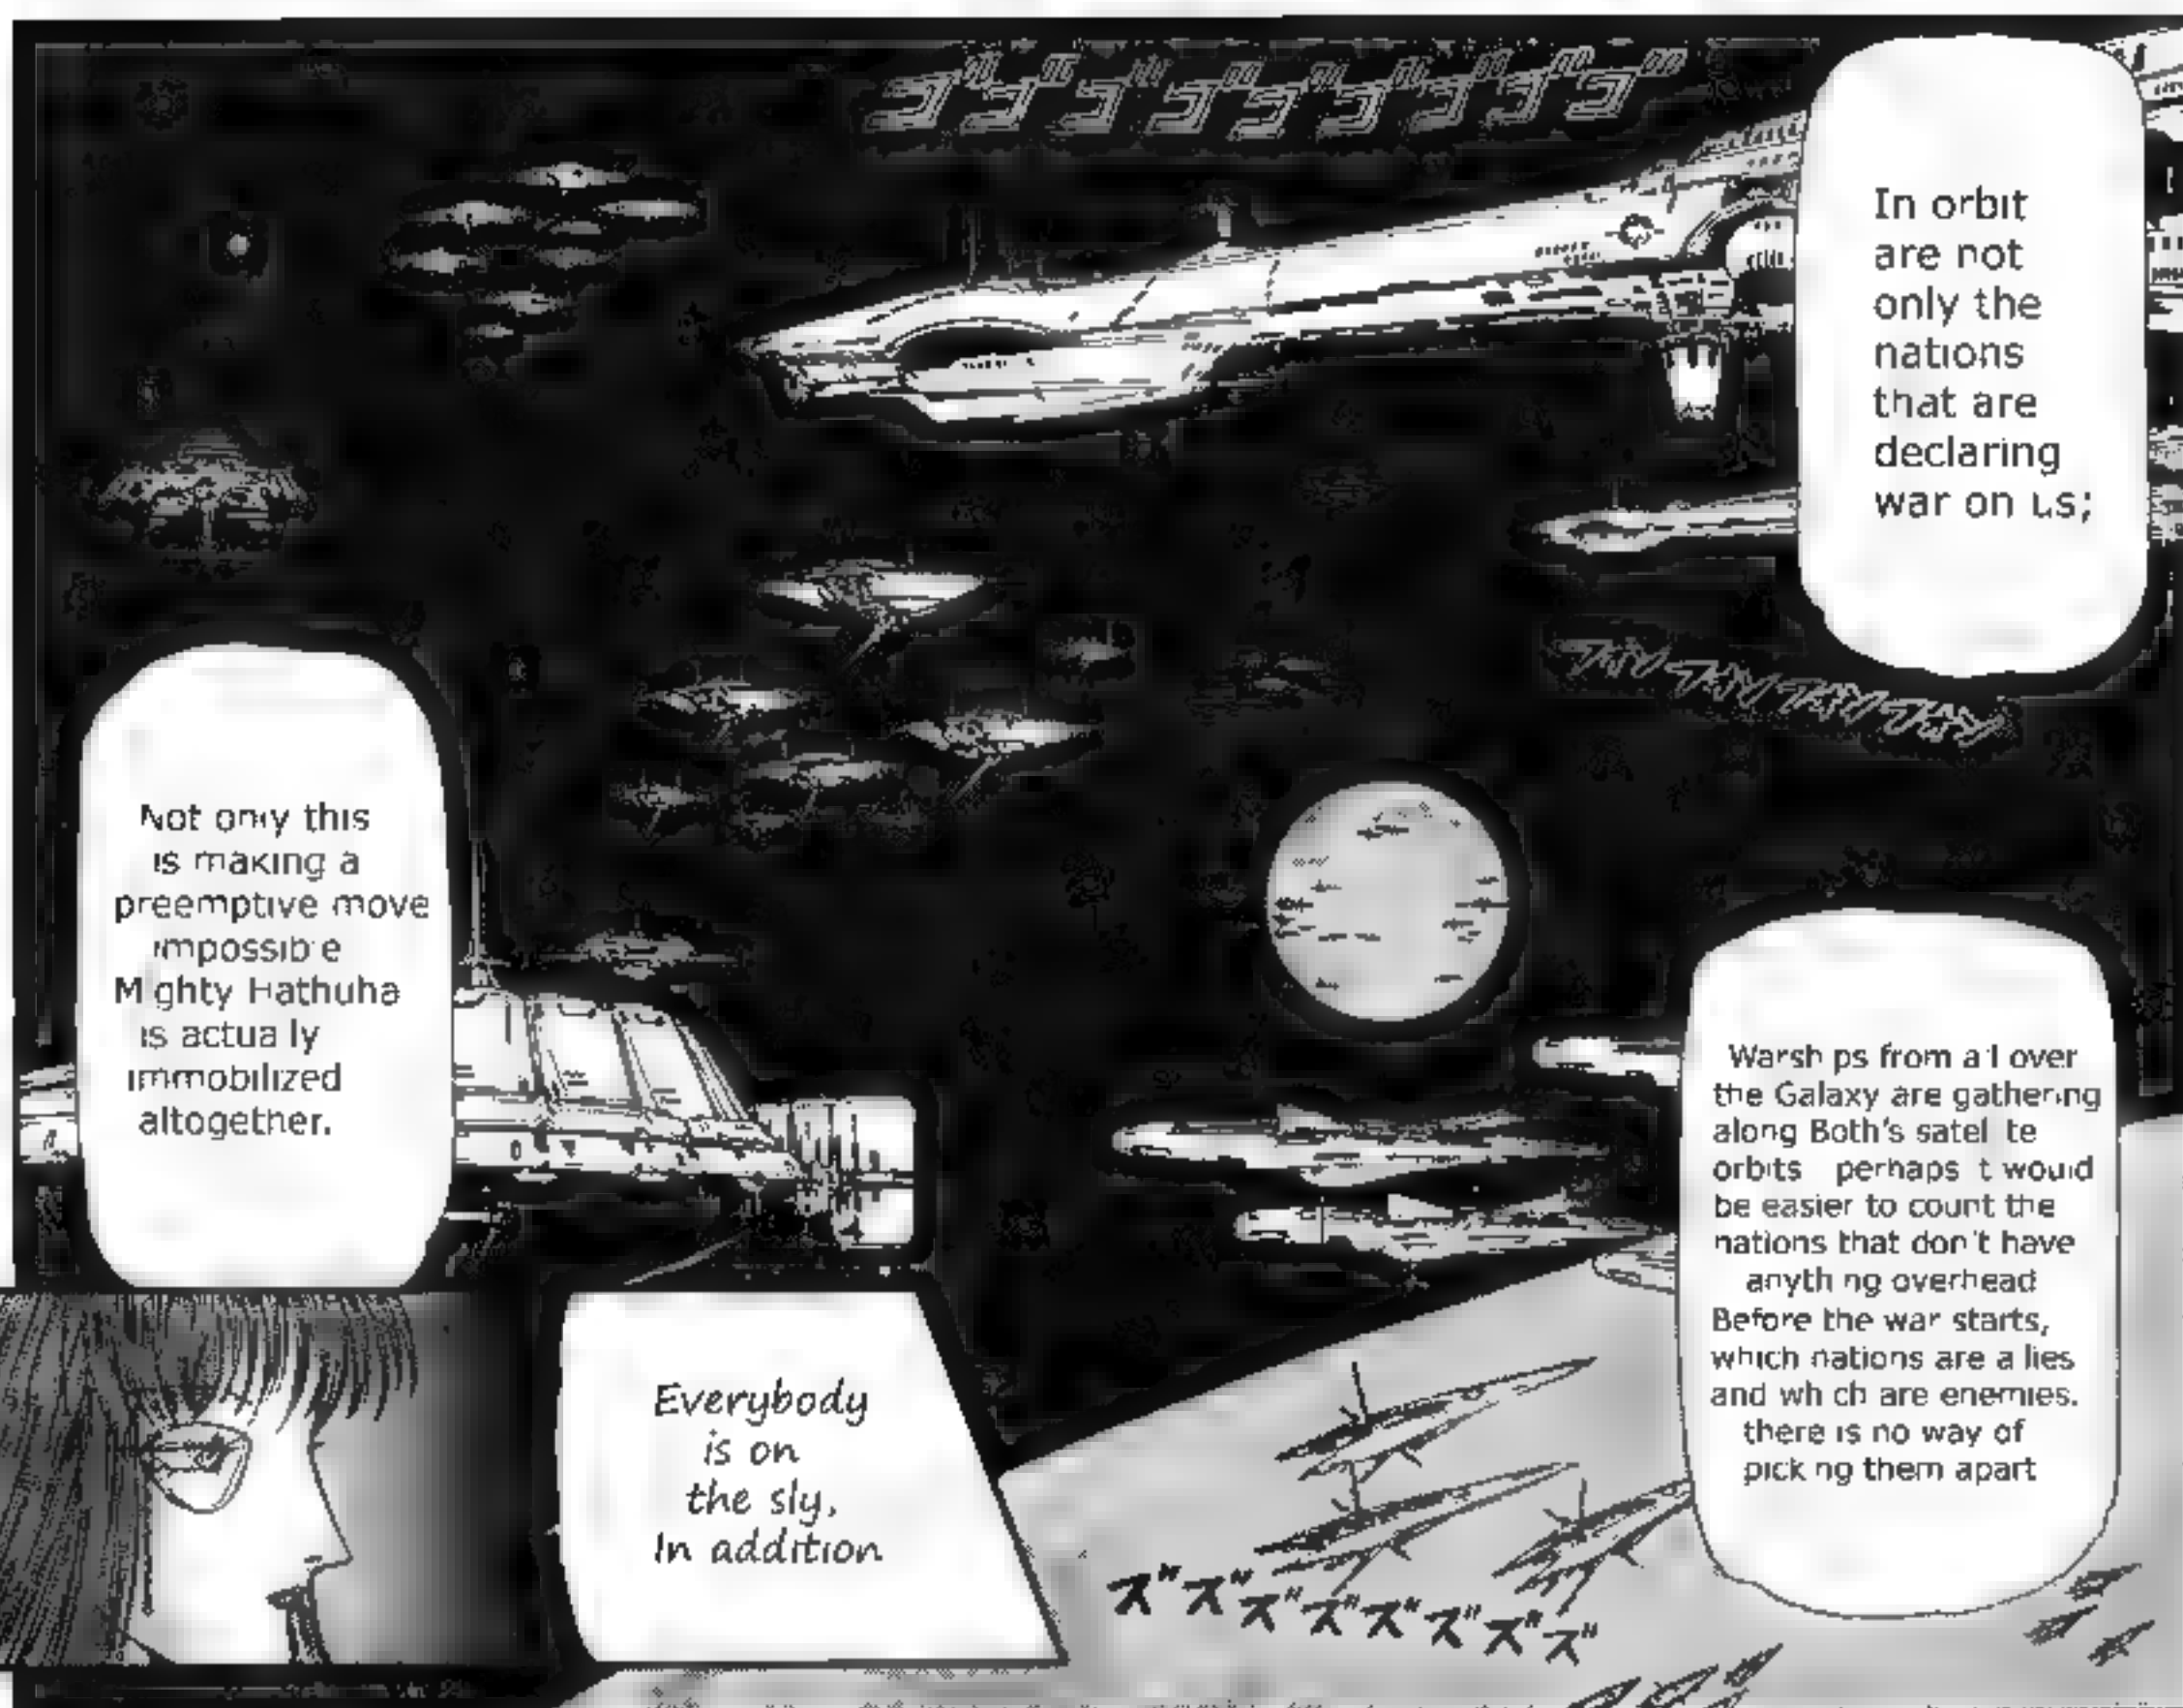

In the central sector near Nakakarah Kingdom, the armies led by the Mejojo Empire's new Emperor Krakenbear have already begun their descent

When Buchtgma starts teleporting into the Imperial Capital, these nations will simultaneously declare war and advance

The Duchy of Jasterkurk, Federation of Dolenno and Kingdom of Brusshi are on standby in an intersecting orbit with forces from Katze of Hathuha, with a predicted 280 MHS.

The Dalean Knight Corps and 3 Star Mercenary Knight Corps are gathering forces from various nations, and assembling above Western Hathuha. Their strength is unknown

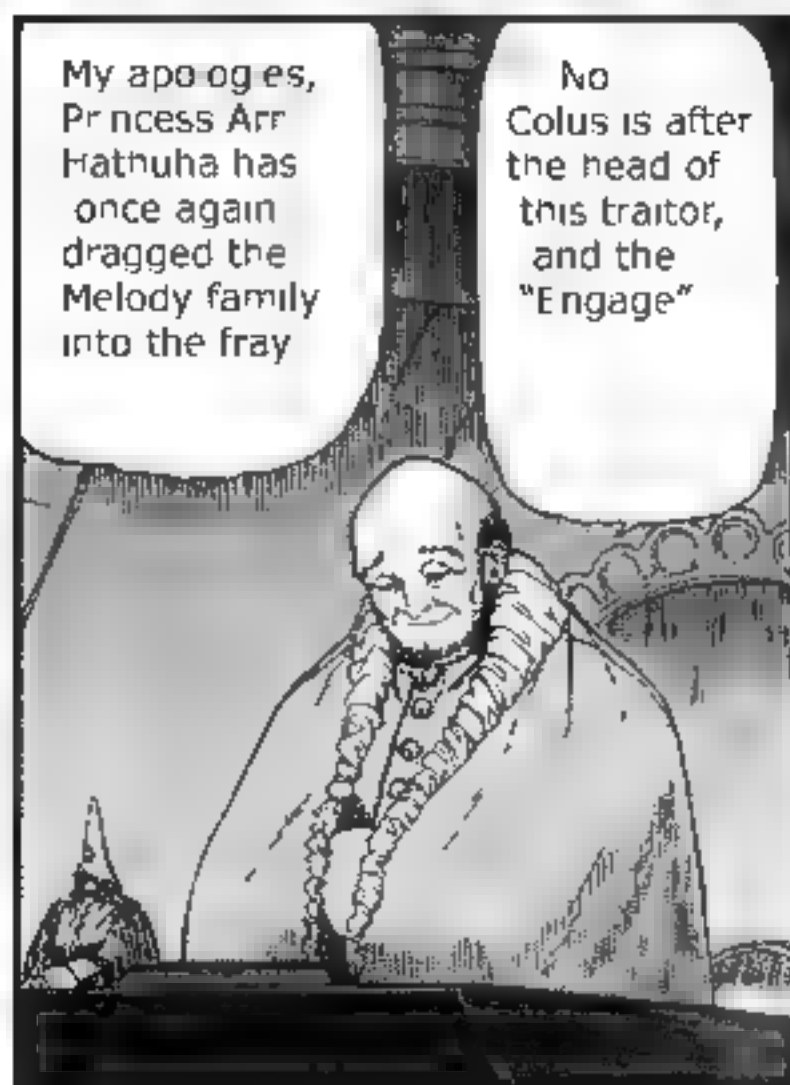

In orbit
are not only the nations
that are declaring
war on us;

Not only this is making a preemptive move
impossible
Mighty Hathuha
is actually immobilized
altogether.

Warships from all over the Galaxy are gathering along Both's satellite orbits perhaps it would be easier to count the nations that don't have anything overhead
Before the war starts,
which nations are allies
and which are enemies.
there is no way of
picking them apart

Everybody
is on the sly,
In addition

ズ"ズ"ズ"ズ"ズ"ズ"ズ"ズ

My apologies,
Princess Arr Hathuha has
once again
dragged the Melody family
into the fray

Colus is after the head of this traitor,
and the
"Engage"

The tables
have turned from 2989,
since that time, Hathuha has become an enemy of Colus.

There are the Torio knights
led by Princess Sayley

My Prince
to the
hind-chambers

protecting them
with my life.

Such is fate.
I will be Prince Depre and Princess
Magdall's
sword

We will head for the Hindchambers, but
at West Swans city, Haid's Palace Knights
and Depre's
Holy Knights
have a ready
finished moving

This palace will be under the responsibility of Swans and Skins
divisions while Dortyu division
guards the rear

The western sector must be guarded by our forces

The west will have the Prince's Flame Empress as Flag mount.

Hathuha's main Knight corps are already positioned at the predicted battle zones of central and east Hathuha

Don't worry, Jabo-sama's "Cobra" has already been sent to Swans city.

What of Mother-sama's Atoll?

The ladies are all gone, when did that happen

Eh?

Geh...!

Where are you going?

Master ...

Al, the wine's gone too~~

How befuddling

はっし!!

Would still want to escape at this crucial moment?

it wouldn't be that Master

Have a sense
of self,
will you?

Really!
At this time, Master
still~!

Or "I don't want to fight
with men",
is it? Master!

Gyaaaa

Oh, I
almost forgot,
Auxo

There won't be any opponents
that would win
against Master,
so get out there
and beat them!

Really, ever since coming to Hathuna
it's been nothing but a series of embarrassments.

"Go
find your

Are you looking down on me,

Don't butt in!

That is because Uncle's

Uncle Kaien you are a Pure-blooded Knight! Any
children you have

question. However, under ordinary circumstances, you should not have been able to leave
any successors!

Ms. That is because you are a 'Natural Pure Blood Knight'
conceived by Knights of the Farus Di
Kanon Super Empire
, and entrusted to the care of the Dragon 10000 years ago'

Your mother was
the Super Empire
Princess Yarnn
Vatshu Kastenpo,
and your name
was taken from the one that the Empress of Flame
gave you Kaien Vatshu Kastenpo

But Uncle,
you're more than that!
Besides the bloodline of the Farus
Di Kanon
Super Empire
Knights

Your body
also possesses
powerful adaptive antibodies and ∞ -shaped DNA!

This ∞ shaped DNA divides endlessly, and has the effect of dramatically slowing down the aging process.

ズズズズ

It is an invaluable treasure obtained from the Fatima Queen, who was burdened with Uncle's potent-blooded embryo when acting as a surrogate!

That is the ability of the Fatima!

To maintain and preserve the Super Empire's data and ∞ shaped DNA, Uncle Kaien's thymus has never stopped growing

Continually producing restorative antibodies for the duration of your lifespan and halting various symptoms of the aging process

Because the bodies of Fatima were created from the DNA of Swans, they were a suitable match

Have researched everything about me

Meet you

For Uncle Kaien to be born, a Fatima's womb was used, and to bear Uncle's child, I, also borrowed the body of a Fatima

I implanted my own ovaries into Auko's body and used frozen sperm from Uncle to impregnate her

But Uncle Kaien's sperm would destroy my ova

So

I wanted, more than anyone else to understand everything about Uncle

I love Uncle Kaien. My mind is filled with nothing but Uncle

That's because

To be able to endure the potent bloodline of the Super Empire, the dividing zygote was reprogrammed along every step taken in the formation of an embryo.

Why? To let my body adapt to this uterus.

To enable my ovaries to produce specially programmed ova, some modifications were made

That egg has thus lain dormant in this state for 10 long years

The first Chivalry in the history
of the Joker
era lies here
right now

Yes, if I had not replaced my uterus with that of a Fatima, this child would never have been able to grow.

Status report!

Highton and Bucht! Come to my side!

Newton Marty, fall back! Let your engines cool down a bit!

Schmeis! What do you think?

ス"ゴ"ゴ"ゴ"ゴ"ゴ"ゴ" ブ"キ"キ"キ"キ"キ"キ"

Buchtgma should have dropped 93 MHs

They must be fighting in shifts, with the balance acting as rearguard when the Black Knight retreats.

When the Black Knight is battling out front, he probably doesn't deploy all his troops,

But the Fatimas only see 42.

But Master
at 15 km ahead,
the Kingdom of Haphamton's
MHs are starting to descend!

My guess is that they're reinforcements
for Buchtgma.

As Vice-
Commanders,
there's no
way they wouldn't have dropped

However
Buchtgma should still have Kesagi
and Kaesh's
"Gastness Temples"

Roger that,
Corona.

At 7 km up front, their engine sounds
are noticeably different from that of the
'Awaken'.

Master 2 sound profiles resembling the 'Gastness Temple' have been identified

We can't afford to call in our reserves at this point!

But as the battle
drags on, we'll have to pull out Dorty's division
for sure

With my Swans
division and Schmeiss's Skins
division, this place will hold
for the time being.

And by using his
shield as a buckler,
he's downed a lot of the frontline Atolls! If he didn't have considerable experience in melee
combat, he wouldn't have lasted this long

But to launch a frontal armour
attack with 2 bodyguards! What's more, to opt for the fragile but speedy
spear over the preferred heavy maces normally used against Heavy Armour types

Say, about
the Black Knight. Even though his strength is a given

But all over Hathuha, there are nations continuously
joining the fight and issuing declarations
of war!

The Buchtgma troops that were deployed at Hathuha's capital at dawn are currently engaged in a bitter
conflict with the Hathuha Knight Corps

Also, from the military Air Forts deployed by the warships of various nations, MHs can be seen steadily dropping onto various regions of Hathuha!

In central Hathuha on the Southeastern boundaries of the Kingdom of Nakakarah, the Mejojo Palace Knights led by the new Emperor Krackenbear
have already started to advance!

This according to our TV station's analytical Fatma's
analysis, is the Jasterkurk MH
"Syacter"! That means

At Hathuha's
Kingdom of Geerel,
Air Forts
embazoned with
the Duchy of Jasterkurk's insignia
can be seen
dropping MHs,

The possibility of Knight Corps
leader Aio Lane's MH "Groom"
participating in the battle is

Let us now
reclaim the territory we have lost! ADVANCE!!

Honourable
Fe ow Jasterknights!

Some of those countries are a lies
of Buchtgma, while others are marching into Hathuha for their own
purposes.

Now that so many count es have entered the batt e,
the borders of the Union Hathuha Republic have
began to dissolve
into those of a
battief eld!

Ready!

Preparations for MH
deployment
complete!

What is His Highness planning to do? We should be deploying, right?

As the actions they might take would heavily influence the way this fight would evolve

Attention is currently focused on the superpowers Filmore, Co us and the AKD's attitudes towards Hathuha,

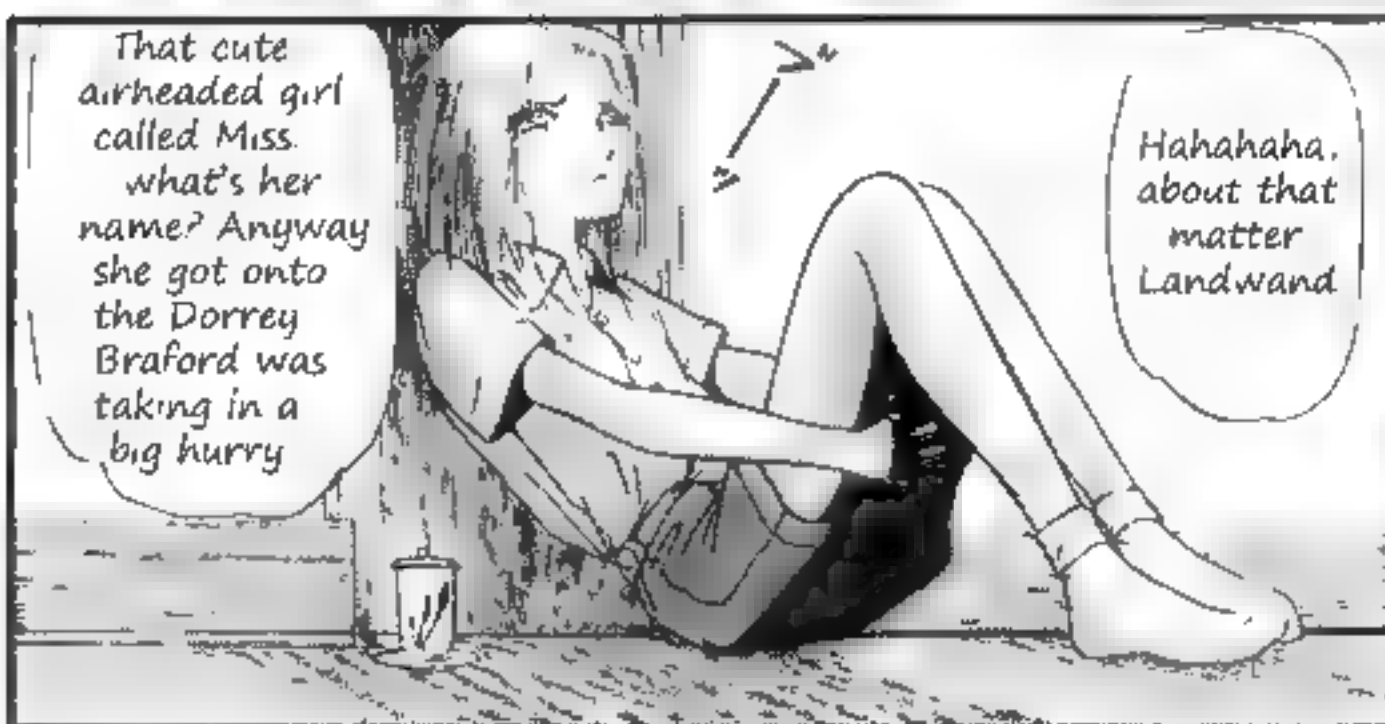

However, it is true that there are still many countries waiting in orbit over Both for the perfect opportunity Dppa, the question now is: What are the "King"'s movements?

His Highness has stated that the ones who want to subjugate Bosjathfort aren't us.

That cute airheaded girl called Miss. what's her name? Anyway she got onto the Dorrey Braford was taking in a big hurry

Hahahaha, about that matter Landwand

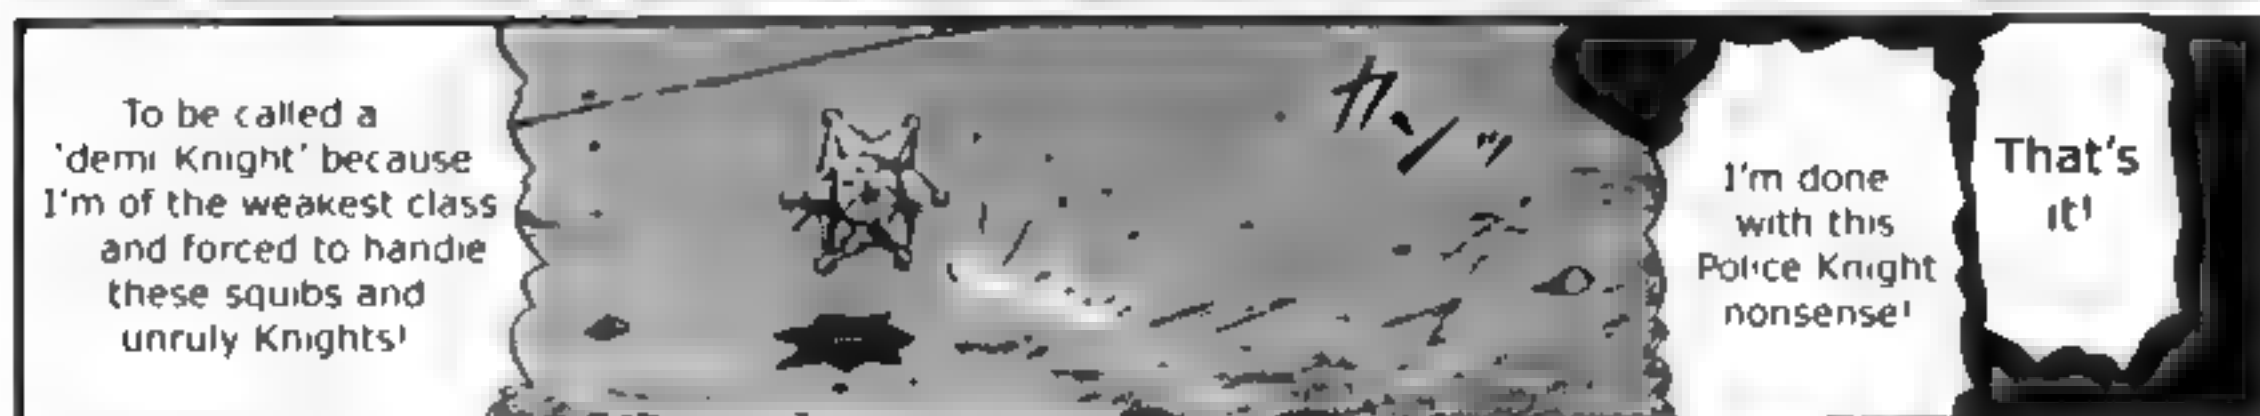

From the opening salvos we can't make out the movements of the major powers but on the planetary routes

This is a broadcast from the Hathuha Imperial Palace and broadcasts from the other battlefields should be coming in any moment

To be called a 'demi Knight' because I'm of the weakest class and forced to handle these squibs and unruly Knights!

I'm done with this Police Knight nonsense!

That's it!

I've had it! I'm not gonna hang around this place for the rest of my life

Distanced from real Knights, and seen as idiots by ordinary people

I'll fight for any nation or Knight Corps who's recruiting for the Wars! I will get myself an MH and become a real Knight!

If I don't make use of this opportunity, I'll stay a half wit for the rest of my days,

No matter what tactics I use; no matter what sneaky
dodges or
underhanded slights
I use, I must perform
great deeds and
make a name for myself!

As long as I
wrangle myself
an MH and Fat ma, I'll be a Knight!
I'll actually become a Knight!

Hey, Ma tel!
Where're
you going?

Haite!

Although Mathuha and Bakk'nrakkan
are separate physical entities
they are both viewed by Knights as their Motherlands,
please permit us
to deploy our Knight Corps.

Is our nation
intending to do nothing in the face of the dangers that the
"Sword Saint"'s
nation is facing?

Our Empire was founded on the basis of neutrality.
How can we commit troops
meaninglessly?

Don't state
the
'impossible'!

If they participate in this war not only will they gain experience, they'll also have a chance to mingle with Knights of other countries which can only be a good thing

If something should happen to this nation, a Knight Corps leader lacking experience would be cause for concern

You can't let the Rakkan Federal Knights be seen as paper tigers too, right?

But, La Sierra!

Is it now? If it were this easy to persuade Legislature I wouldn't have to toy like this, Juzotta!

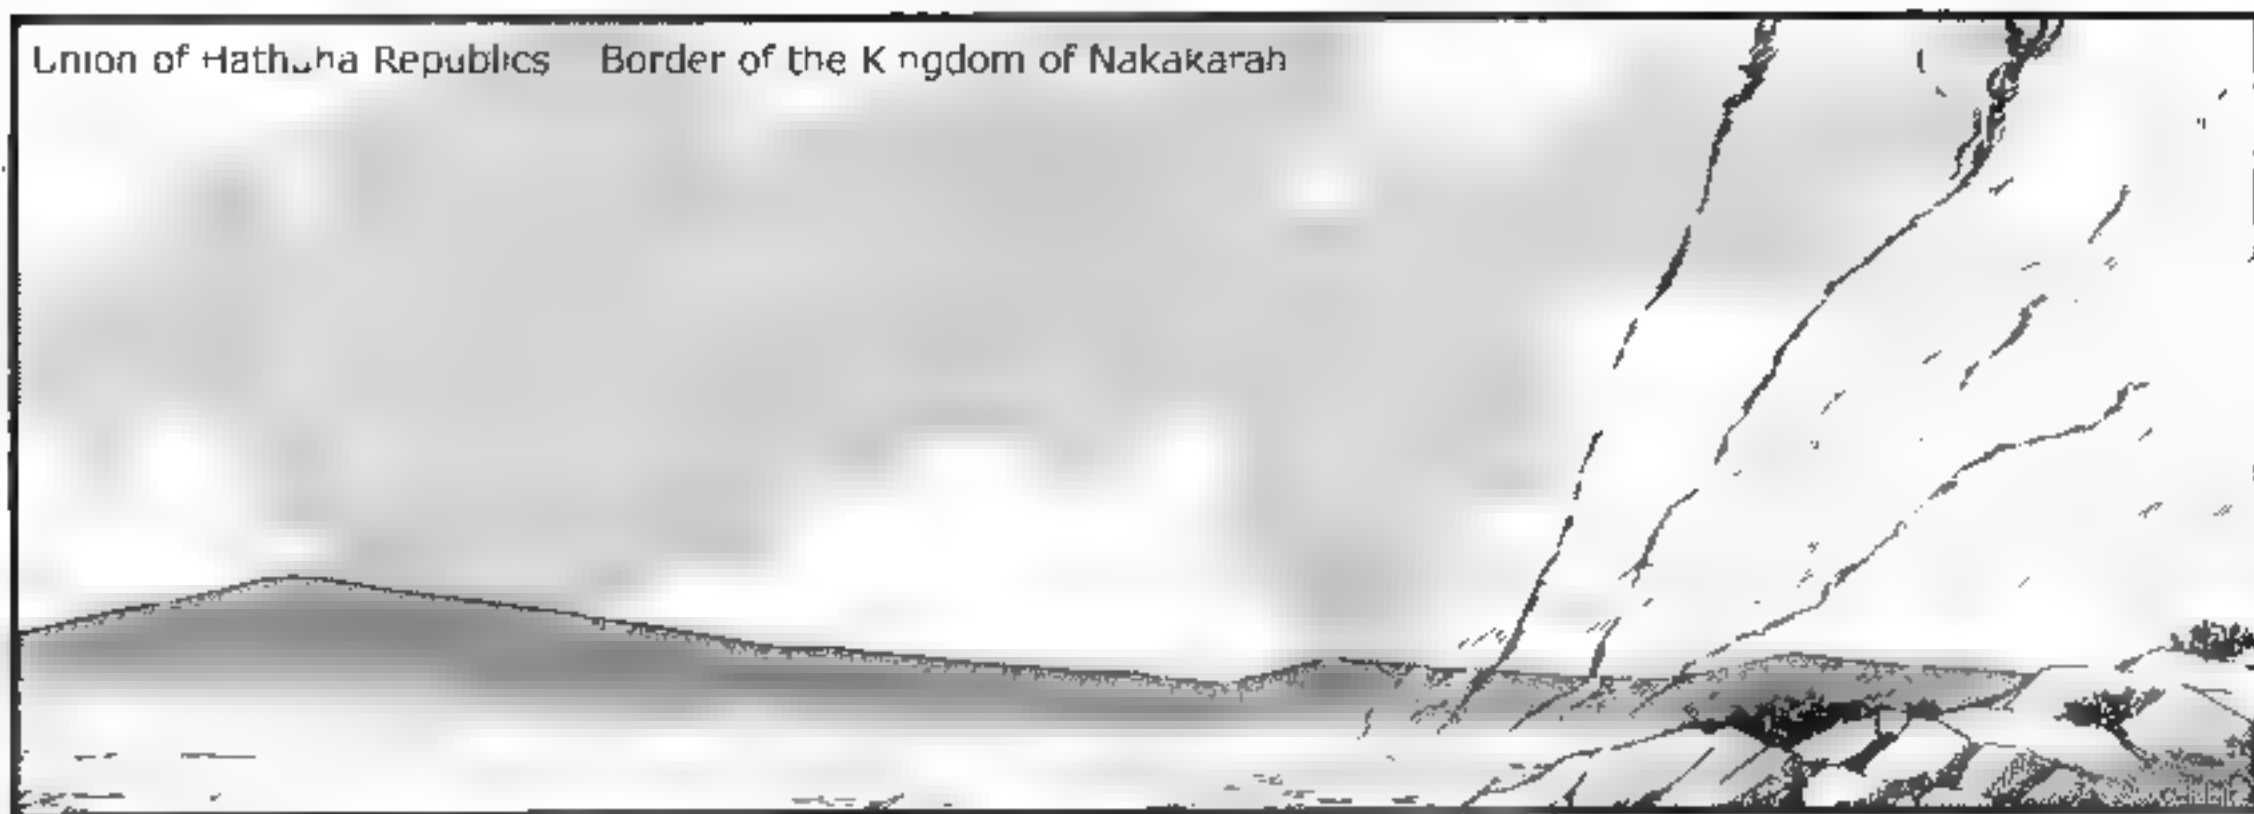

Mother

While you La Sierra must learn to make decisions in war which would mean sending Knights to their deaths.

Juzotta must experience the burden of her duties as a Knight of this nation and the terrors of war

And a political battle for you, La Sierra, as the Holy Empress I hope each of you will gain valuable experience from this.

This is a fight on the battlefield for Rakkin Federal Knight Corps Leader Mamadora Juzotta,

That's true,
precisely because our troops got together and
moved in first.
So, what's going to appear after this, and how will
it all play out?

Hahaha... I guess we'll just have to go with
the flow then?
Emperor...

Indeed...
I and the entire Knight Corps
are at your command, Emperor...

Hahaha,
wouldn't
going with the flow be just swell then?
Minister Peidoll!

All troops,
advance to Nakakarah!

Master!

Alright then! Since,
it'll turn out the same way regardless of when we advance
our troops, pack up
the MHs into the
dorreys!

What?
Already?
Get me
its source.

2 km dead
ahead!
There's
a huge
